

DOES “NOT NOW” MEAN NEVER?

The case for committing to abortion law reform in Victoria

a Reproductive Choice Australia event

Monday 23 October 2006

6pm for 6.15pm start

Former Melbourne City Watchhouse
Russell Street (between La Trobe and Victoria Streets)
Melbourne

Entry cost: $5 donation appreciated

Limited seating – RSVP essential info@reproductivechoiceaustralia.org.au

Featuring:

Wayne Berry MLA – ACT politician who successfully decriminalised abortion in the ACT
"What really happens to politicians who stand up for reproductive rights?"

Lesley Vick – Reproductive law expert
"Reproductive rights and reproductive health"

Dr Lachlan de Crespigny – Obstetrician Gynaecologist - Melbourne Ultrasound for Women
- and Head of Ultrasound at Royal Women's Hospital at time of controversial abortion case

The event will be hosted by Dr Leslie Cannold – radio personality, columnist and author of the award-winning books 'The Abortion Myth' and 'What, No Baby?'

www.reproductivechoiceaustralia.org.au